

Preparing for Large Wildfires in New Mexico

FREE WORKSHOPS

When and Where

April 17: Aztec

9am-noon. San Juan County Office of Emergency Management, 209 S. Oliver Dr.

April 23: Hernandez

9am-noon. Hernandez Community Center, 19418 A US-84, Rio Arriba County.

April 24: Las Cruces

9am-noon, Doña Ana County Government Center Rooms #111/113, 845 N. Motel Blvd.

April 25: Clovis

9am-noon, Carver Library North Annex, 701 N. Main St.

April 26: Socorro

9am-noon, Socorro County Office of Emergency Management, 198 Neel Ave.

Workshop Topics Include

- Why Wildfires Keep Getting Bigger
- Find Solutions Through Collaboration: All About Watersheds Portal
- What's Being Done: New Mexico Opportunity Mapping
- When the Fire Comes: Interagency Fire Response
- When the Rains Follow: After Wildfire NM

Who Should Attend

Tribal/County/Municipal Fire Department wildland fire personnel; Forest District Rangers; Fire Management Officers; Comprehensive Wildfire Protection Plan Core Teams; Emergency Managers; Floodplain Managers; Public health/hospital personnel; Natural resource planners; Soil and Water Conservation Districts; and Council of Governments.

There is no cost to attend. Please confirm your name, contact information and the date of the workshop you want to attend to: dhsem.localprepared@state.nm.us or 505-476-9682.

Please bring a laptop computer if possible.

For additional information, contact Mary Stuever: 575-588-7831 or Mary.Stuever@state.nm.us

AFTER WILDFIRE
A GUIDE FOR NEW MEXICO COMMUNITIES